Dear Neighbor,

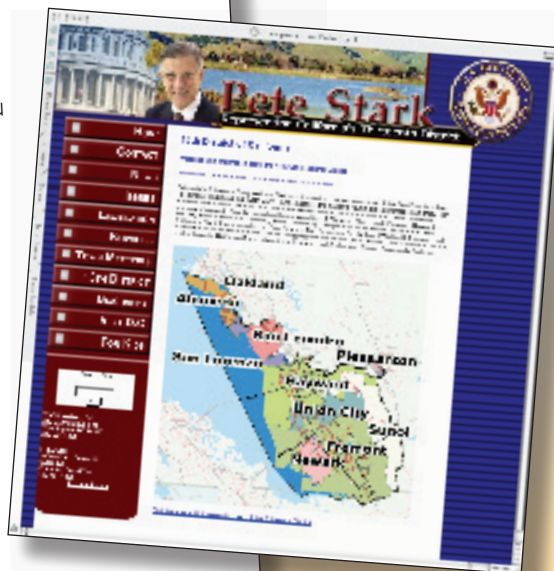

The fastest way to find the federal government information you need is by visiting my web site, www.house.gov/stark. With a few clicks of your mouse you can:

- ✓ Sign up to receive my e-mail newsletter.
- ✓ Get quick responses to your questions and comments via e-mail.
- ✓ Cut through the red tape of government by helping track a missing Social Security payment, accessing grant information, navigating the immigration process, and more.
- ✓ Find out why I support or oppose specific legislation by looking at my floor statements, official letters and press releases.
- ✓ Learn more about services my office provides, such as setting up tours of the U.S. Capitol and other sites in Washington, D.C., ordering U.S. flags that have flown over the Capitol, and filling out an application to become an intern in my office.

Of course you can always call my office, send me a letter by postal mail or join me at one of the town meetings. But for immediate help, try your mouse.

Sincerely,

Pete Stark
